Public Relations: Pristine Advisers Public Relations teams are image shapers. Our job is to generate positive publicity for our clients and enhance their reputation. We cultivate and maintain contacts with journalists, set up speaking engagements, write executive speeches, respond to inquiries and speak directly to the press on behalf of their Client. They keep the lines of communication open between the many groups affected by your business: consumers, shareholders, employees, and the managing body. We assist with your press releases, marketing materials, roadshows, etc. We keep abreast of current events and are well versed and understand what stories will get the public's attention. It takes a combination of analysis and creative problem solving to get our clients in the public eye. The content of the work is constantly changing and unforeseen challenges arise every day. With our 33 years of experience in this industry, Pristine Advisers are experienced in any and all situations and are well positioned to help clients of all shapes and sizes and markets.
